

Why Should Business Students Study Abroad?

Business is Global. Because of today's economy, it is very likely that you will work for an organization that operates worldwide or that you will run a business with global partners. How can you develop global business skills?

One of the best ways to study abroad! Living and studying in another culture teaches you to be flexible, adaptable, appreciative of other cultures, and to view the world from multiple perspectives-important global business skills.

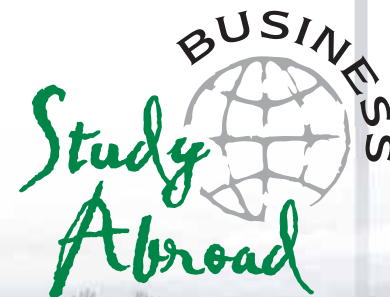

Surfing the Study Abroad Website at <http://ciber.msu.edu/studyabroad> is an excellent way to begin thinking about study and travel abroad.
